

Table of Contents

Chapter 1 Introduction.....	3
Chapter 2 Literature Review: Markets, Intermediation and E-Commerce.....	7
Introduction .....	7
2.1 Historical Analysis of The Process of Exchange .....	9
2.2 Drawing Parallels with Todays Economic Development.....	13
2.3 Models of Technology Diffusion .....	17
2.4 Electronic Commerce .....	23
2.5 The Arrival of the Internet.....	27
2.6 The Value Chain and the Impact of EC.....	33
2.7 Some Empirical Examples .....	36
Conclusion.....	43
Chapter 3 Agent-Based Social Simulation .....	45
Introduction .....	45
3.1 Distributed AI, Emergence and Complexity .....	47
3.2 Multi-Agent Systems.....	48
3.3 Objectives of Modelling and Social Simulation.....	50
3.4 Agent-Based Social Simulation Modelling (ABSS) .....	52
3.5 Modelling Methodology .....	56
3.6 Experimental Design, Implementation, and Analysis .....	60
3.7 Validation Methods .....	65
3.8 Review of Models of Exchange .....	67
Conclusion.....	73
Chapter 4 Qualitative Research Methodology .....	75
Introduction .....	75
4.1 Qualitative Methodology.....	77
4.1.1 Qualitative Research Paradigms.....	77
4.1.2 Case Study Research and the Interpretative Approach .....	82
4.1.3 Methodology of Information Systems Research .....	84
4.1.4 Methods and Methodological Design.....	86
4.2 The Case Study.....	92
4.2.1 Overview of the Project.....	92
4.2.2 Targeting an Industrial Sector and Finding Potential Case Studies .....	93
4.2.3 The First Meeting: Establishing the Context for the Research.....	97
4.2.4 Case Study Research Design .....	98
4.2.5 Carrying out the Case Study.....	101
Conclusion.....	104
Chapter 5 Case Study Fieldwork.....	106
Introduction .....	106
5.1 Background on the Company .....	107
5.2 EDI and EC policy.....	109
5.3 Data Collection Methodology .....	112
5.4 Emergent Themes from the Case Study Fieldwork.....	113
5.4.1 Drivers and Inhibitors of Electronic Commerce Adoption .....	115
5.4.2 Incentives Offered by the Initiator and the Mandate-of-Adoption Policy .....	118
5.4.3 The Role of the Distributor and the Likely Impact of E-commerce.....	120
5.4.4 The Impact of E-commerce on Efficiency Gains and Productivity .....	124

Conclusion.....	127
Chapter 6 Linking Fieldwork Data with the Agent-Based Model .....	129
Introduction .....	129
6.1 Relationship with the Stakeholders .....	130
6.2 Research Questions .....	133
6.3 Experimental Design: Model Scenarios .....	136
6.4 Use of the ATLAS.ti Software .....	139
6.5 Validation of the Model.....	142
6.6 Hypotheses in the Model: HEC and HINT.....	146
6.7 Using Stakeholder Participation in Conjunction with ABSS modelling.....	148
Conclusion.....	154
Chapter 7 Description of the Model and Simulation Experiments.....	155
Introduction .....	155
7.1 Overview of the Model and the Aims of Simulation .....	157
7.2 Model Description .....	158
7.2.1 Agents and Environment .....	158
7.2.2 Customer Demand .....	160
7.2.3 Intermediaries .....	162
7.2.4 The Endorsements Model.....	164
7.2.5 Beliefs.....	165
7.2.6 Manufacturer's Strategy .....	167
7.2.7 Customer and Distributor Characteristics .....	169
7.2.8 Ranking of Agent Beliefs .....	171
7.2.9 How Endorsements Relating to HINT and HEC are Asserted.....	173
7.2.10 Interaction Processes .....	175
7.2.11 Agent Attitudes and Decision-Making.....	179
7.3 Simulation Experiments .....	180
7.3.1 First Scenario.....	182
7.3.2 Second Scenario .....	193
7.3.3 Third Scenario .....	202
7.3.4 Fourth Scenario .....	208
7.3.5 Sensitivity Analysis .....	211
7.3.6 Analysis of Results on the Success of Intermediary Strategies.....	215
7.3.7 Comparison of Simulation Results with the Mall Statistics.....	217
Conclusion.....	220
Chapter 8 Discussion.....	222
Introduction .....	222
8.1 Reflection on the Stakeholder Participation.....	224
8.2 Reflection upon the Usability of the Approach.....	227
8.3 Other Participatory Approaches .....	230
8.4 Revisiting the Research Hypotheses .....	235
8.5 Limitations of the Research.....	238
8.6 Reflection on the Areas Deserving Further Work.....	241
Conclusion.....	243
Chapter 9 Conclusion .....	245
